Application fee

The application fee amounts to € 200 and covers the handling costs of your application dossier by the Executive MBA Board of Admissions (AB). A payment link to pay the application fee will automatically be shared with you after you fill out the application form. Payment is due before your application file is shared with the AB. The fee is unrelated to the final decision regarding your admission.

Study fees

The study fees for enrolling in the Executive MBA On-Campus track amount to € 34,500, while opting for the Executive MBA Online track costs € 29,500. These fees cover the costs of all programme components, e-books and other study materials, access to the University's physical and virtual learning facilities, and catering during the educational weeks, such as lunches, coffee breaks and welcome dinners. The fees do not include travel and accommodation costs.

Study fees are spread over six instalments in two years. Depending on when you start the programme, you will receive invoices for the six instalments according to the schedules below. In the event of payment arrears, the programme office reserves the right to suspend your participation in educational units until your financial obligation is met. Please respect the university's payment term for each invoice, which is 30 days.

Cancellation fees

For the core curriculum, you are automatically enrolled in every online course or on-campus week. Please review your personal schedule in a timely manner to determine whether you can attend or whether deregistration is necessary. Each educational unit (online course, on-campus week, elective week, or international week) has a fixed cancellation deadline. The applicable deadline depends on the specific type of unit and is stated in the invitation and/or confirmation you will receive from the MBA office. Cancellations received after the stated deadline will incur a non-refundable fee of €500.

In case you decide to terminate your participation in the MBA programme prematurely, you will be charged 25% of all remaining instalments.

Continuation fees

The programme has a maximum study duration of four years. If you need to prolong your study beyond this maximum and the Board of Examiners approves your request, an additional study fee of € 3.200 applies from the start of each extra year beyond the initial study period.
